The Himalayan Club's, Glorious 80 Years Celebrated with Gusto at Mumbai
-Jasmine Hegde

The 80th Year Celebration of The Himalayan Club, at Mumbai section started (from 8th February to 14th February 2008) with the members from many parts of the world and Mumbai, climbing and trekking at the Pachmarhi Hills [Madhya Pradesh, Central India.]

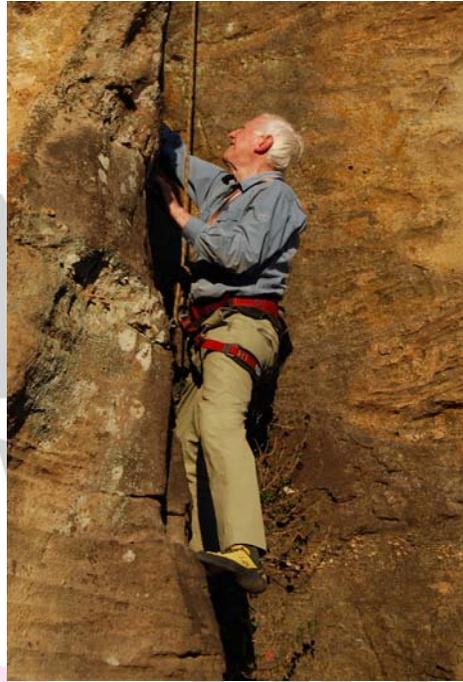

[The group]

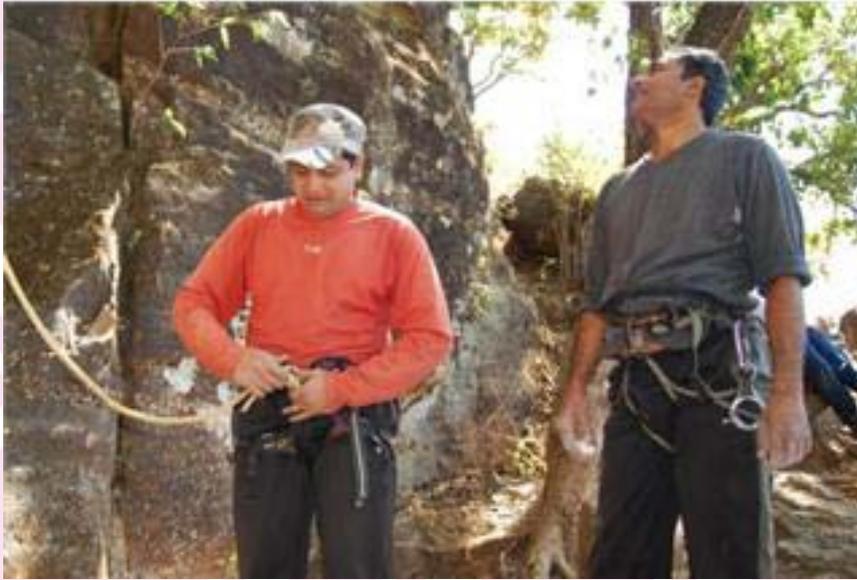

The five-day excursion was full of activities and leisure. Some went on long walks, others watched birds and yet others climbed but all got together in the evening to explore Pachmarhi bazaar for authentic local food.

Of course there are rocks and more rocks to climb and so Mark Richey with Vinay Hegde climbed many long pitches, joined by Rajesh Gadgil. The surprise was George Band, 79 years. He inspired all of us with his climbing skills, age has not mellowed him at all!

Back in Mumbai, the Annual General Meeting (15th February 2008) saw a good turn out of members from India and abroad, many of them very senior members of the Club. Discussions on current activities and ideas were exchanged for the future of the club. Divyesh Muni, after praiseworthy work for more than a decade as Hon. Secretary retired and Vijay Crishna took over the reins.

On the same day, Dr J Meyer, Geologist Ph.D, Environment and Communication Consultant, made a detailed presentation to a small, invited audience on the environment policies and practices of the Swiss Alpine Club, and outlined what he believed the Himalayan Club might be in a position to do. A lively discussion, with the session presided by Himalayan Club member Aamir Ali, who came from Switzerland to attend, followed his presentation in which all present participated. Under Mr Ali's guidance, a report and recommendations will be sent to the Club for consideration for future action.

[Dr. Juerg Meyer]

[Aamir Ali]

The morning of Saturday, 16th February, started with guests onboard a special cruise in the Mumbai harbour. The cruise started from Gateway of India and gave a tour of the harbour. Dr. Ravi Mariwala, (Member of the Managing Committee and a sailor) enlightened all about the surroundings and islands near Mumbai.

This was followed by a meeting at the Indian Merchants' Chambers (our co-sponsors) where Aamir Ali (Hon. Member of HC) and Juerg Meyer suggested many ideas for protection of the Himalaya.

[Environmental Seminar at IMC]

[Adi Godrej and Dr. Gill]

The main event was inaugurated by the leading industrialist Mr. Adi Godrej, on the evening of the 16th February 2008. T. Braham, Aamir Ali, Gurdial Singh, N. D. Jayal, Aspie Moddie and Dr. Gill were honored for their life time dedication, contribution and guidance towards the club.

A short presentation was made about history and activities of the Himalayan Club by Harish Kapadia. One of the senior-most members of the Club Trevor Braham, (author, explorer and editor) delivered a talk Himalayan Playground covering history of the Club from 1946.

[Mark Richey]

'Kaivan Mistry Memorial Lecture' was delivered by Mark Richey (former President of the American Alpine Club, and a leading climber), who spoke about his climbs in the Karakorams, specially Latok I.

The film Americans on Everest was screened. Nawang Gombu, (holder of the Tiger Badge of the Club) who had climbed to the summit on this expedition, was present. A book on Nawang Gombu's life, compiled by his daughter was released.

[Adi Godrej releasing the book on Nawang Gombu]

That evening (16th February 2008), a grand club dinner was held at the Yacht Club. It was a unique gathering of senior members mixing with the young.

Sunday, 17th February 2008 was the 80th birthday of The Himalayan Club. We celebrated the occasion with our guests, indulging in the historic photos along with the scrumptious Jalebis at the HCC.

[At The Himalayan Club Centre]

Later on, the program started with the screening of film Beyond Everest covering the work of late Sir Edmund Hillary for the Sherpa community. Juerg Meyer, environment specialist from the Swiss Alpine Club, spoke about Role-model for environment protection of the Himalaya. This was followed by a talk SUMMIT: 150 years of the Alpine Club by George Band, (senior mountaineer and author from London and Hon. Member of the HC) a lecture full with humour and historic pictures.

[Jasmine felicitating T. Nakamura]

Tamotsu Nakamura (explorer from Japan) was next speaking on his great explorations in Southeast Tibet. The climax of the celebrations was a talk by Mark Richey. My Hardest Climb covered, stupendous wall climbing accompanying with the stunning pictures.

[Nawang Gombu with his family and Gurdial Singh]

[Sharing the good moments]

There was quite a solicitous inclusion of mind blowing slide illustrated lectures on history, environment and of course climbing. And we had great personalities to deliver these lecture and a grand audience to appreciate the Celebration. As it should be at every such gathering, the mingling of young members with the legendary personalities of Club was of prime essence. And thus ended the birthday party – guests satisfied with climbing, trekking, cruising, lectures, discussions and as always, good food - the mainstay of all celebrations!
