

Film Selection: Banff 2015 India Tour

1. Danny MacAskill: The Ridge 2014, Scotland, 7 min
 Filmmaker: Stu Thomson
 Film Synopsis: World-renowned trials rider Danny MacAskill is back! Filmed on the stunning Isle of Skye in Scotland, MacAskill returns to his childhood haunt for a new challenge: riding a mountain bike on the infamous Cuillin Ridge.

2. Desert Ice 2014, USA, 12 min
 Filmmakers: Keith Ladzinski, 3 Strings Productions
 Film Synopsis: American ice climbers Jesse Huey and Scott Adamson climb into the remote high-desert slot canyons of Southwest Utah in search of what some are calling the best water-ice discovery of the last 20 years.

3. Wild Women - Faith Dickey 2014, UK, 3 min
 Filmmakers: Wojtek Kozakiewicz, Polished Project
 Film Synopsis: Smile and laugh along with slack-liner Faith Dickey as she shows us just how fun life on the line can be.

4. ARCTIC SWELL Surfing the Ends of the Earth 2014, USA, 8 min
 Filmmakers: Anton Lorimer, Chris Burkard
 Film Synopsis: Surfing photographer Chris Burkard loves capturing cold water surfers. He's prepared to venture to the ends of the earth to snap that once in a lifetime shot.

5. Just Keep Running 2014, New Zealand, 10 min
 Filmmaker: Aaron Smart
 Film Synopsis: Ruby Muir is one of the world's most promising young trail runners. Ruby shares her journey of love and loss and the inner struggles which have helped shape her into the running sensation she is today.

6. Touch 2014, France, 5 min
 Filmmaker: Jean-Baptiste Chandelier
 Film Synopsis: Touch is a colorful and spectacular flying tour of Santorini in Greece, the Aiguille du Midi above Chamonix and the Col du Galibier in France, with a bit of cheekiness added in, just for fun.
7. Valley Uprising The Golden Age 2014, USA, 28 min
Feature film won Grand Prize sponsored by MEC
 Filmmakers: Peter Mortimer, Nick Rosen, Josh Lowell, Zachary Barr, Sender Films and Big Up Productions
 Film Synopsis: Valley Uprising: The Golden Age takes us on a journey through an amazing period in the climbing history of Yosemite, from the counterculture lifestyle to the legendary big wall rivalry of pioneers Royal Robbins and Warren Harding.
8. Sun Dog 2014, USA, 5 min
 Filmmaker: Ben Sturgulewski
 Film Synopsis: What could be better than riding gorgeous lines of untouched snow with your best friend at your side?
9. The Unrideables: Alaska Range (Special edit) 2014, USA, 18 min
 Filmmakers: Derek Westerlund, Steve Reska, Red Bull Media House
 Film Synopsis: Glorious cinematographic eye candy! Expert speed flyers test their limits in a massive, volatile landscape of ice and snow.
10. Forgotten Dirt (Special edit) 2013, Canada, 10 min
 Filmmakers: Colin Jones, Darcy Wittenburg, Ian Dunn
 Film Synopsis: A small team of mountain bikers travels to the remote Wakhan Corridor of Afghanistan in search of remote cultures and trails that are thousands of years old.
11. 14.c 2014, USA, 9 min
 Filmmakers: George Knowles, EVOLV Sports & Designs
 Film Synopsis: Kai Lightner discovered rock climbing at the age of six. Now 14, he is pushing the limits of hard climbing and trying to staying focused, all with his single mom on belay.
12. Vasu Sojitra: Out on a Limb 2014, USA, 7 min
 Filmmaker: Tyler Wilkinson-Ray
 Film Synopsis: Vasu Sojitra lost his right leg to a blood infection at nine months old, but that doesn't stop him from venturing deep into the backcountry to ski challenging lines entirely unassisted.
13. Sufferfest 2: Desert Alpine 2014, USA, 27 min
Radical Reels People's Choice Award at the BMFF sponsored by Deuter
 Filmmakers: Cedar Wright
 Film Synopsis: Cedar Wright and Alex Honnold are back! This time, a month riding their bikes and climbing desert towers in the American Southwest should be a piece of cake for these fast friends. Or will it?